

KIDNAP & RANSOM AWARENESS TRAINING

COURSE OVERVIEW

This one-day Blue Mountain course provides an invaluable understanding of Kidnap and Ransom situations, whilst also equipping individuals with effective techniques and procedures for dealing with such incidents.

This highly practical course will provide an insight into what to expect for personnel working in hostile, high risk or remote environments to help reduce the likelihood of being kidnapped. Additionally, we provide proven, pragmatic knowledge that will help ensure the learner is more likely to survive a kidnapping incident.

This course presents delegates with expert knowledge from trainers with various military backgrounds, all of whom have tremendous operational experience; in order to equip delegates with the confidence to cope should the situation arise.

This course allows you to access the skills and expertise that we have acquired from decades of operational experience and from delivering training on the subject matter for many years. Our course offers the opportunity to talk with experienced security operatives, Special Forces personnel and we can even provide a guest speaker who has been a victim of kidnapping themselves (additional charges apply).
